Subject: Surrender of insurance broking license and proposed transfer of insurance broking business

Dear Sir/ Ma'am,

1. This is with reference to the mandate issued by you in favour of JLT Independent Insurance Brokers Private Limited (“We”/ “Company”) engaging the Company to provide [risk management/ claims consultancy services] / authorizing the Company to procure insurance / reinsurance coverage on your behalf and/or carry such other incidental activities as permitted under law and mandated by you (“Client Mandate”).
2. This is to inform you that, following the global acquisition of JLT by Marsh & McLennan Companies (“MMC”), the Company has filed an application with the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority of India (“IRDAI”) on February 20, 2020 (“Application Date”), for voluntarily surrendering its insurance broking license (“Application for Surrender”). In this regard, you are requested to take note of the following:
  - (a) On and from the Application Date, the Company is required by law to not undertake any new insurance broking activities for its clients. In order to ensure continuity of service pursuant to IRDAI approving the Application for Surrender (“IRDAI Approval”), the Company has reached an agreement with Marsh India Insurance Brokers Private Limited (“Marsh India”), a composite insurance broker registered with the IRDAI vide certificate of registration no. 120, for transferring all of the Company’s existing broking arrangements with its clients (including yours) to Marsh India, upon receipt of the IRDAI Approval (“Proposed Transfer”).
  - (b) Upon completion of the Proposed Transfer, all rights and obligations of the Company in relation to your Client Mandate (including the obligation to service your insurance/ reinsurance contracts) will be assumed and carried out by Marsh India, and the Company shall cease to carry out any insurance broking activities. Further, all data/information including the originals of the files, papers, books of accounts, know your customer information, customer credit information, customer pricing information and all other necessary information in relation to you will also be transferred to Marsh India to ensure a smooth transition of services.
  - (c) All amounts due from insurers/reinsurers in relation to the Client Mandate, which accrue on and from the date of completion of the Proposed Transfer and which are due will be paid by them to Marsh India. Any fees agreed to be paid by you to the Company which accrues on and from the date of completion of the Proposed Transfer should be paid by you to Marsh India. In order to facilitate such payment, the Company will separately notify you the date on which the Proposed Transfer is completed and will also provide you with necessary details for making payments to Marsh India.

- (d) On and from the Application Date and till the date of completion of the Proposed Transfer, the Company shall continue to service all insurance policies entered into by you through the distribution channel of the Company, unless the Client Mandate is terminated in the manner as set out herein.
3. Please note that no action is required on your part to facilitate the Proposed Transfer and upon completion of the Proposed Transfer, you will automatically become a client of Marsh India and your Client Mandate shall become subject to Marsh India's terms and conditions annexed as Annexure 1 hereto. However, in the event you are not acceptable to the transfer of your Client Mandate to Marsh India and wish to terminate your Client Mandate, you are requested to communicate your objection to the transfer of your Client Mandate in the form set out in the Annexure 2 to this notice, by courier, registered post or email, to the address provided below, together with all documents as requested, latest by March 10, 2020 ("Cut-off Date"). Please note that a failure to communicate objections to the transfer of your Client Mandate and personal data identified in paragraph #2(b) above on or prior to the Cut-off Date shall be deemed to signify your consent to such transfer.
